Kucinich Subcommittee Hearing to Probe Administration's Response to Foreclosure Crisis

Washington D.C. (February 19, 2010) – Chairman Kucinich (D-OH) today announced that the Domestic Policy Subcommittee will hold a hearing on Thursday, February 25, 2010 entitled “Foreclosures Continue: What needs to Change in the Administration's Response.” The hearing will be held at 2:00 p.m. in Room 2154 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

The purpose of this hearing is to examine the function and the impact of the Administration's response to the ongoing foreclosure crisis. The Subcommittee will hear testimony from a Treasury Department official, as well as other experts who will provide insight as to the impact of the Administration's program, and suggestions for its improvement.
